San Francisco, California: Temporary Housing for Quarantine

Description of Program and Relief

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, San Francisco Mayor London N. Breed announced an initiative to provide temporary housing as quarantine locations for individuals who have tested positive for COVID-19 and do not need to be hospitalized, as well as individuals who have been exposed to the virus and do not have access to adequate shelter for isolation due to homelessness or shared-living arrangements (shared-living situations include SROs, shelters, and Permanent Supportive Housing).
